

Membership in the Friends provides an opportunity to stay updated on library activities. A governing Board is elected annually to conduct the executive functions of the organization and there is one general membership meeting per year. Friends are encouraged to volunteer for projects which interest them and to be active in support of the Scott County Public Library.

Who We Are

The Friends of the Scott County Public Library is a 501C3 nonprofit organization which serves as a support group for the library. Since the founding in 1975, the Friends have provided much needed volunteer staffing; have purchased and donated materials, furnishings and equipment for the library; and have provided a wide variety of programming, especially for children.

Membership Benefits

- Receive the library's monthly newsletter by mail and e-newsletter.
- Opportunities to volunteer
- Invitations to special events at the library
- A discount in the Friends Bookstore

What We do

The Friends have served as an extension into the community, spearheading many collaborative projects and partnerships.

The Friends are active in a variety of ways:

- Provide materials, furnishings and equipment for the library
- Sponsor library programs, for adults and children
- Keep public officials informed on library matters
- Inform the public about library activities and promote involvement
- Collaborate with other local groups for the community good
- Sponsor book sales and special projects
- Provide books to the Ed Davis Learning Center and other groups through the "Celebrate with Books" program.
- Award an annual academic scholarship
