Campaign rules and participation

How to Play

- Teens ages 12–18, receive a Library Unlocked Challenge Card at the info or Youth desk.
- Complete missions. Choose from library visits, creative projects, digital activities, reading-related missions, and weekly bonus challenges.
- Each completed mission earns a stamp on their Challenge Card, along with 10–30 points once the activity has been verified by library staff.
- Reach point milestones to earn recognition and prize-drawing entries.
- Attend the finale. Celebrate at The Library Unlock Event, with special activities and grand-prize drawings.

Official rules

- One challenge card per participant.
- A library card is not required to participate.
- Complete each mission once to earn your stamp and points!
- Participants can submit completed missions at the Youth Information Desk.
- Staff verify activities using stamps.
- Participants must submit their points by March 31st.
- Prize winners will be selected randomly from eligible entries; winners need not be present at the finale, but encouraged.
- Prizes, age eligibility, consent requirements, and drawing procedures will be finalized under library policy before promotion.
